IS THIS SOMETHING?
Alex Amaral

You can't just grab an idea off the shelf;

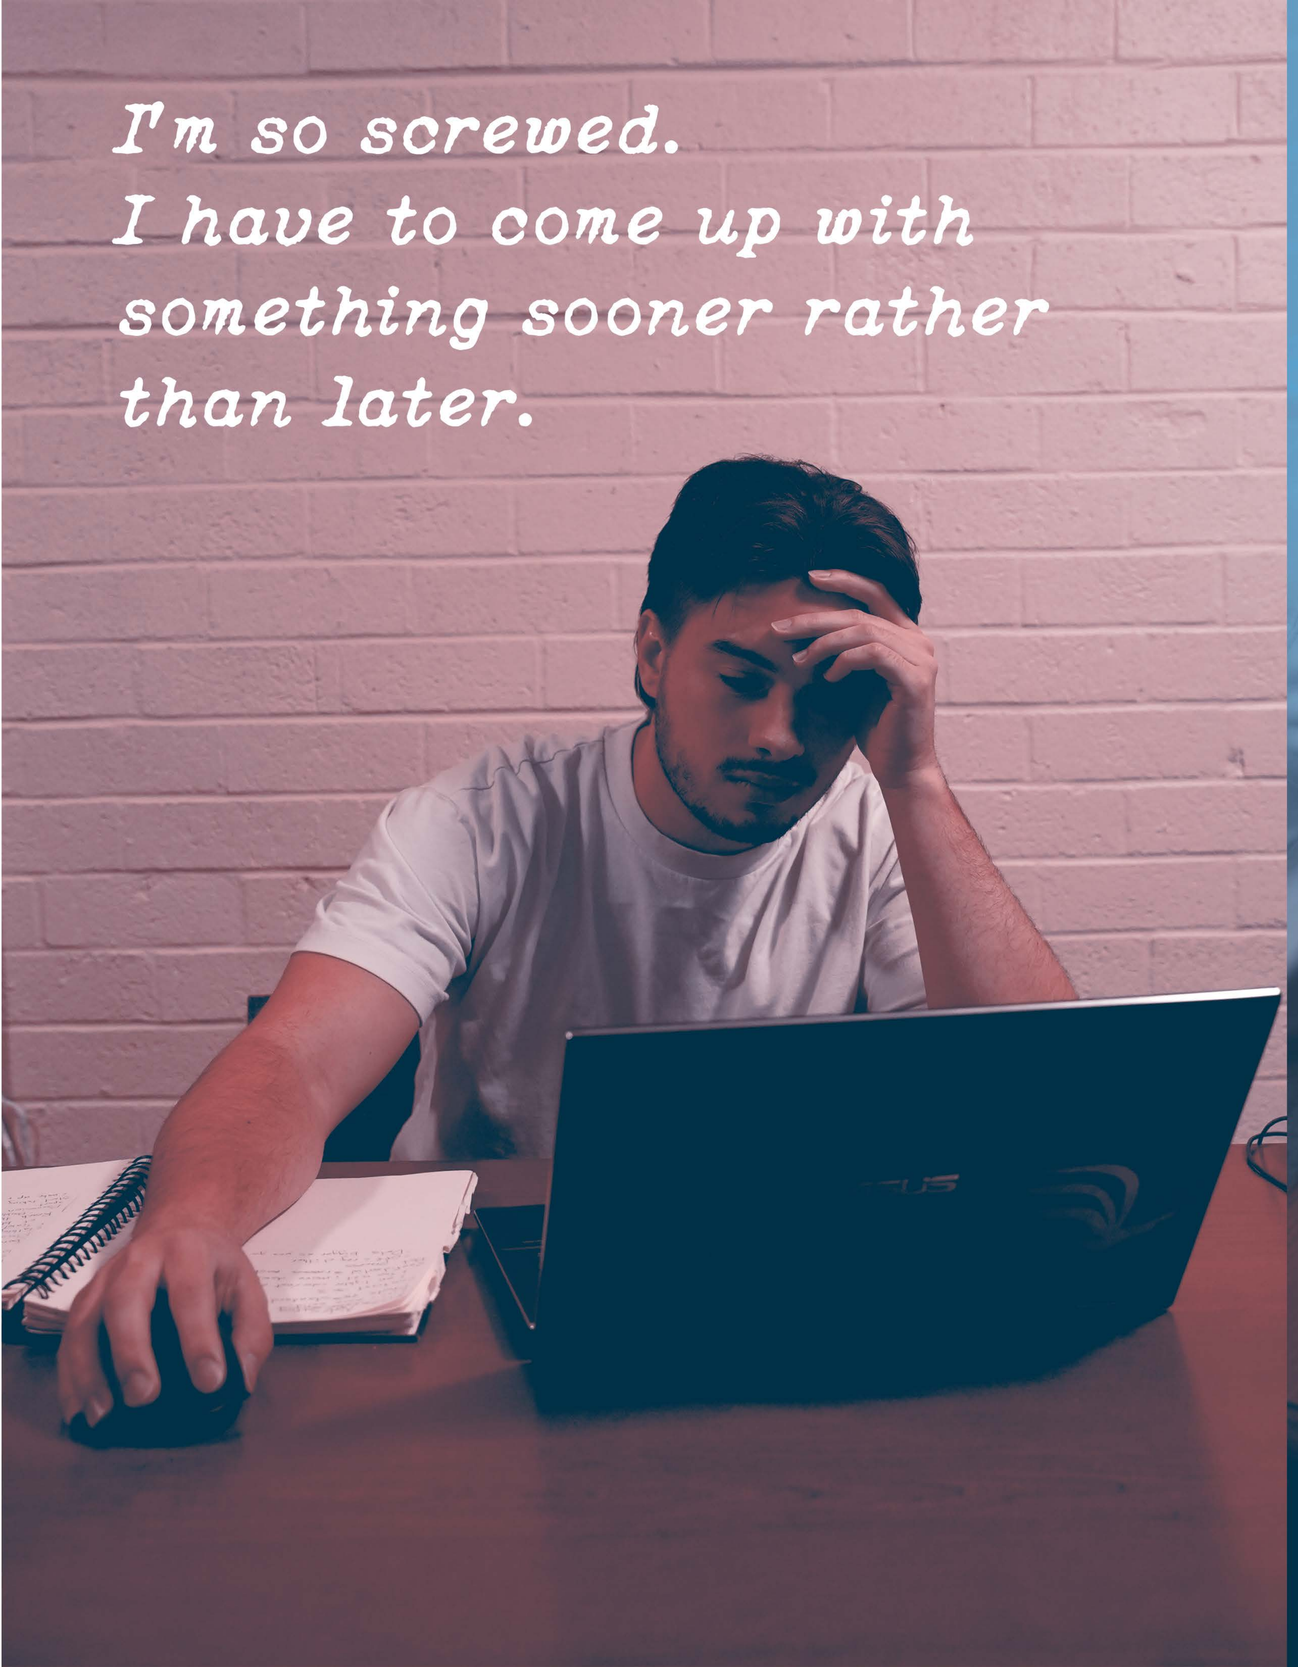
it's more of a wrangling process.

I can usually reel in some monsters, massive stuff that keeps me busy for weeks.

Lately, everything I try feels a bit lifeless.

I thought there would always be something there; even something small.
Nothing new shows up. I wait like it might.
It doesn't.

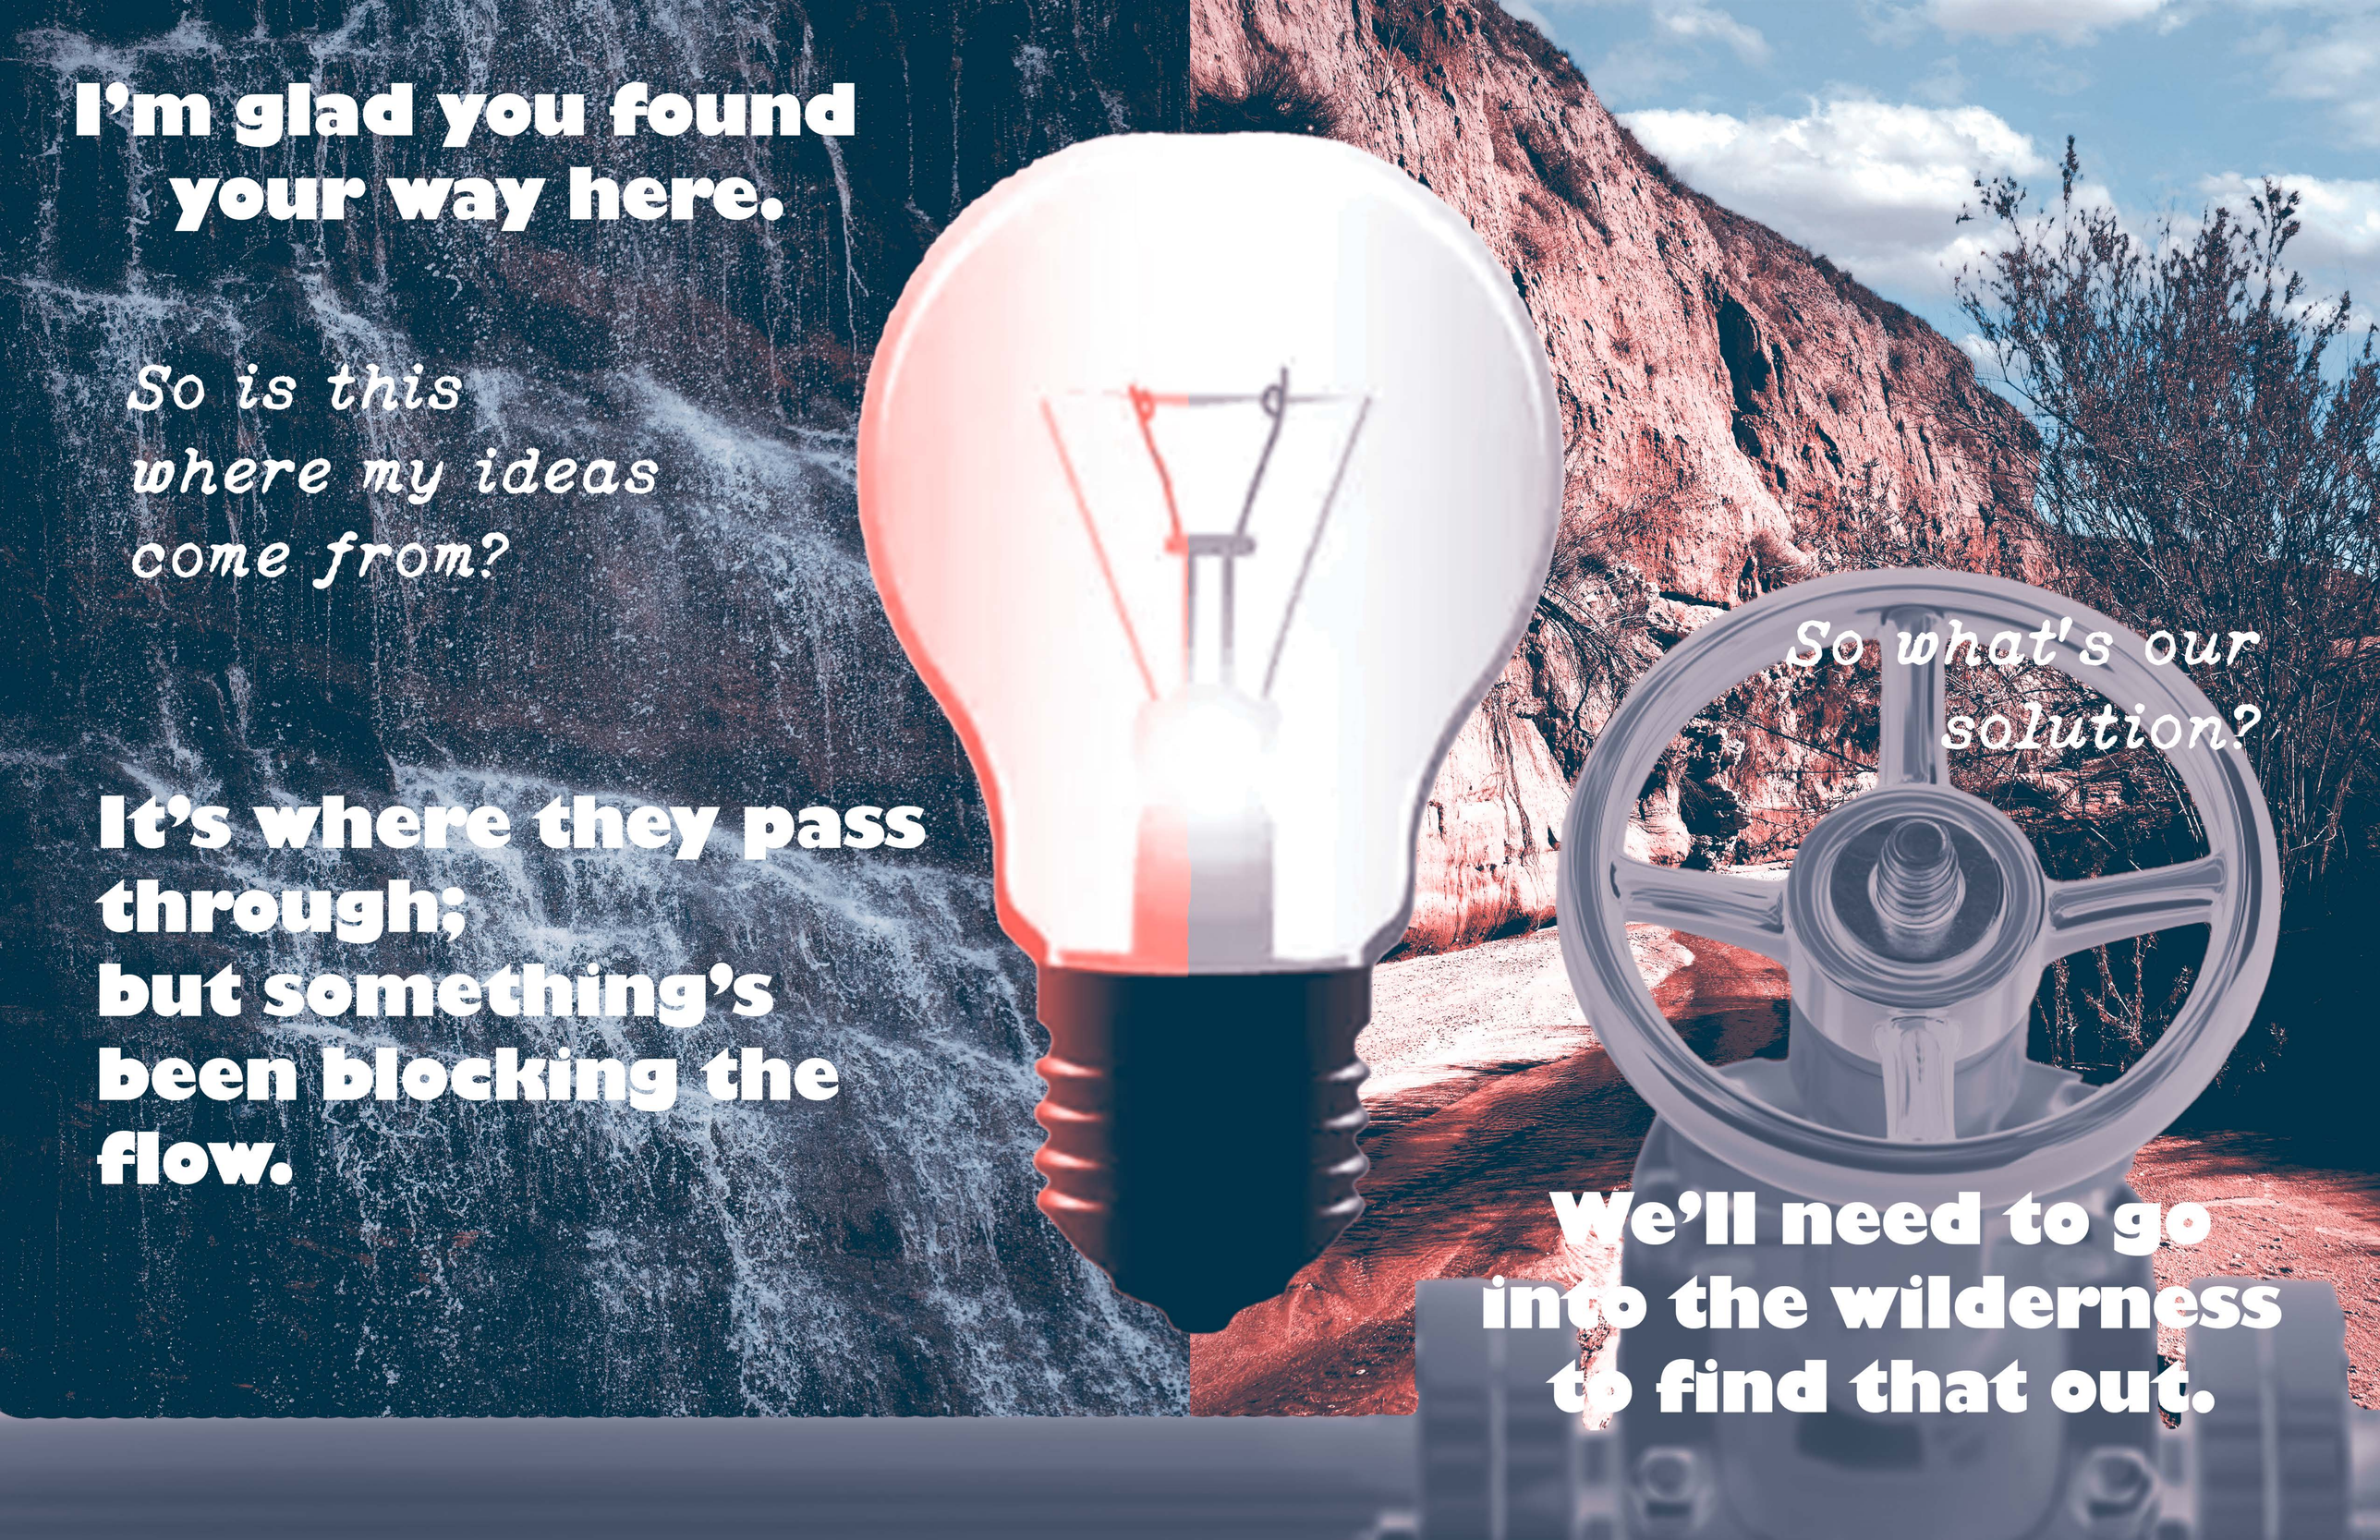
I'm so screwed.
I have to come up with something sooner rather than later.



The walls won't hold their shape.
Every step rewrites the space.

All I know is that this place is leading me somewhere.

Who are you supposed to be?
I rule this place.
You don't look like much.
I don't need to.



I'm glad you found your way here.
So is this where my ideas come from?
It's where they pass through; but something's been blocking the flow.
So what's our solution?
We'll need to go into the wilderness to find that out.

I didn't realize you meant wilderness so literally.

I am a bulb of many surprises.

Nice views out here.

Some would even say they're ideal.

I see what you did there, that's a good one.

So we're just... walking until we find some problem?

Walking is how most things begin again.

You want a hot dog or something dude?
Do you even eat?
No, I'm good. Thank you though.
Yeah, I just ate before you showed up so I'm not that hungry.

Will you hurry up?

How are you already sick of me? Aren't we in my brain?

Usually, these adventures don't take this long. You are very slow.

I thought you were supposed to be all mystical and wise?

One can be otherworldly on a skateboard.

Why am I always the one walking?

Well I have no feet.

You were cooler when you talked less.

Is that really another me over there?
Who else did you think was the problem?
Yeah, I guess that makes sense.

What's going on here?
Why did you build this?
It was too much.
Too many ideas at once.
So you decided to stop everything?
I was trying to filter
out the bad ones.
Ideas are meant to move,
be free.
... yeah

So let's take this down.
If we do, everything will come back. Even the bad ones.
Good.

Where did this come from?

IDEAS
was something.
